

Ladislav Guderna charcoal Shakespeare at home 1974

Ladislav Guderna

On the afternoon of October 6, 1999, the great surrealist Ladislav Guderna died at home in his sleep. Since his first exhibition in 1941 he showed his work all over the world until his last exhibition in 1999. Throughout his life he pursued his world of dreams and shared his love with Eva, his wife, daughters Lenka and Marina and son Martin. He is remembered by his family and friends.
