

Vancouver, 15. Sept. 82

Dear Edward,

Merci de votre aimable
lettre qui m'a fait un grand plaisir.

Please find enclosed some pages, which I am preparing for Melmoth-Vancouver.

Claude Courtot's prose will be translated too by Michael Bullock.

It is a pity you did not meet Ladislav Kundura.

I will write you more next time.

With my best wishes to you and Anne.

Yours
James Ladislav

P.S.

The Melmoth will be published on 6th October.
