Dear Édouard,

Many thanks for your letter and the news it contained.

I was born in Hackney (in the East End of London) in 1953.

I look forward to receiving both the catalogue of the Lyens exhibition and your contributions to M3.

M3 comes on very, very slowly but should appear sometime! We have been hampered by lack of contributions.

Yes, we will use the paintings by Chavê's friends eg Malton and Lacroix. We have a fine selection of his poems. Michael Bullock and I have already published a small selection of other poems by chance under our own imprint - "Immatee" with 3 old drawings by me and a cover by Martin Guderns. It will only be distributed in Canada and in England. You should receive a copy from Michael soon.

'Immatee' is soon to publish a book of Marcel Béalu's prose poems (you know of course how fond Michael is of Béalu) and a book of paintings by Joe Rose (do you know his work?)

Michael has many ideas of who he wants to publish. We hope to bring more or less arbitrarily, together poets and painters in "Immatee", to try to provoke ~~the~~ 'fission', another chance meetings of the umbrella and sewing machine...

We hope to publish a book of the Danish poet Ulf Gudmundsen, perhaps we could use paintings of Hans Meyer Petersen? there is the possibility of using images by West, by the Icelandic Flóki, a book of poems by Ivan Goll, or one by Salah Faig - so many ideas!

The beauty of "Immatee" will be that it's cheap. John Wilson will be doing a book of his portraits of jazz musicians illustrating their poetry.

So, while Melmoth dozes, his woman, Immatee, is hard at work.

But Immatee is not an alternative to either Melmoth nor the Vancouver Newsletter; it is another weapon in our arsenal, hopefully a way of introducing artists and poets more or less unknown or forgotten in our two countries. It will also be an interesting attempt at trans world collaboration! Michael is back in Canada, I shall soon be moving to Sweden, Salah and Haifa and Melmoth in London!

Fraternal Greetings
Tony.
