Dear Edouard,

I have just received a postcard from Mary Low Machado saying that she has tried in vain to visit you at the address I sent to her, and asking that I send her immediately your correct address. I do not see how I could have sent her the wrong address, but in any case I have just rushed off a note to her with your address, so you should be hearing from her any day. But perhaps, in view of the difficulties she has had finding you, it would be a good idea for you to send her a note (by pneumatique?):

I do hope that you are able to arrange a meeting with her. Do you have the reprint of her Red Spanish Notebook (co-authored with Juan Brea), with the new Introduction by Granell -- published by City Lights?

We have been very busy here, as you must be aware from the various materials I sent you some weeks ago (FREE SPIRITS party, Surrealism in 1982 Exhibit, etc.). Have you received FREE SPIRITS?

I am eager to hear the news from your side -- your "Zimiles impressions" etc., etc. Incidentally, we never received the "critical notices" from the newspapers from the Lyons exhibit; you mentioned that at least one referred to Penelope's works, & we would like to see what they had to say....

Is your book on surrealism & photography out yet?

Hoping all's well with you & Anne Ethuin,

Surrealist Salutations,

Franklin

P.S. -- Mary Low Machado will be in Paris only a very short time, so it is necessary to write to her at once....
